

Dublin Morning Register, Wednesday 07 December 1825, page 1

And also Saunders's News-Letter, Tuesday 29 November 1825, p.3

THE DUBLIN HARMONIC INSTITUTION,

No.13, WESTMORLAND-STREET,

BUNTING, WALSH, PIGOTT AND SHERWIN,

PROPRIETORS.

THE PROPRIETORS of this Establishment beg leave most respectfully to announce to the Nobility, Gentry, their Friends and the Public, the OPENING of the Dublin Harmonic Institution, THIS DAY.

In soliciting a portion of that patronage which has been so liberally extended to Establishments of a similar nature, and without wishing by an ungenerous comparison to lessen any of those highly respectable Houses in Public estimation, they however feel themselves warranted in offering one observation to that Public, whose support they shall be ever anxious to deserve.

THREE of the Proprietors being Professors of Music, trust that the advantage to be derived from their careful selection of Instruments, by the First Makers, and of the most esteemed Compositions, will be obvious.

The internal regulations of the Establishment will be conducted by Mr. Sherwin (who has had many years' experience in the department) in co-operation with the other Proprietors, who feel confident that the arrangements they have made for the Public Accommodation, will be found such as to insure general satisfaction.

They have just landed a Splendid assortment of Horizontal and Upright, Grand, Cabinet, Harmonic, Circular and Square PIANO-FORTES, including Messrs. CLEMENTI'S beautiful newly invented self-acting and keyed Cabinet PIANO-FORTE — Single and Double-action HARPS, SPANISH GUITARS, HARP LUTES, HARMONICONS, FLUTES, VIOLINS. VIOLONCELLOS, &c., which being purchased for Cash, and specially selected by themselves from the First Manufacturing Houses in London, they are able to offer for Sale on such advantageous terms as have hitherto been unknown either here or in London.

In addition to the above, they beg to call the attention of the Musical World to their Stock of Vocal and Instrumental Music, amongst which will be found whatever is New and popular under that head; and have made arrangements in London by which they will be regularly supplied every week with all New Music as soon as published.

N.B. _Piano-Fortes, Harps, &c. &c. constantly for Hire, by the Night, Week, or Month. Experienced Tuners sent on the shortest notice. Foreign and English Strings in great variety, and every Article appertaining to Music.

13, Westmorland-street, Nov. 28, 1825.