

Appeal on the organ

This demand for a full-time orchestra met with an enthusiastic reception in the Ulster Hall last night when the first concert of a new season for the City of Belfast Orchestra opened.

The banner — made from wallpaper and black paint—was stuck across the front of the Ulster Hall organ shortly before the musicians and audience came in. Before the hall was filled it had been taken down. Featured at the concert was the distinguished pianist Cherkassy.

Belfast Newsletter 12.9.64

WE WANT A
FULL-TIME
ORCHESTRA