DB's Orchestral Concerts' Database

19800229 Unique reference number

Orchestra/Ensemble	Ulster Orchestra
Date	29 Feb 1980, 7.30pm
Venue & Start Time	London, St John's Smith Square
Category/Title
Conductor	Bryden Thomson
Leader	Pan Hon Lee
Soloist(s)	Sheila Armstrong, soprano
Choir(s)
Repertoire	Beethoven Overture: Egmont
	John Kinsella The Wayfarer, Rhapsody on a poem of P H Pearse
	Berlioz Nuits d'été
	Brahms Serenade in D, Op.11
Dua manana in anahina V/N	Υ
Programme in archive Y/N	·
List of Players Y/N	N
Programme Notes Y/N	Y – Berlioz translations by Felix Aprahamian
Writer of Notes (if known)
Biographical Notes Y/N	Y, including the Ulster Orchestra (see below)
Additional Information	Part of the A Sense of Ireland festival, 1 Feb to 15 Mar 1980, a major festival in London of the arts and culture of Ireland (Dinah Molloy was the Festival Music Director and Concert Organiser).
	Concert "presented by the Insurance Corporation of Ireland Ltd. and Irish Shipping Ltd."
	John Kinsella's Rhapsody was commissioned by the Irish Government as part of the Pearse* centenary celebrations in 1979.
	*Patrick Henry Pearse (1879-1916) – or Pádraig Anraí Mac Piarais